Overview of Weather, Water, Land Sites (OWWLS)

Featured Article

Outlook Briefing, July 22, 12-12022 NWS Alaska Climate Ongoing

Workshops & Conferences

Center.

News release from the National Drought Mitigation Alaska, Idaho, Oregon, Washington, and states monitoring stations. This online map also includes conditions throughout southern Alaska. dryness (D0) and moderate drought (D1) continue in Interior Alaska, and abnormally dry conditions areas have remained the same. Moderate drought (D1-tan) and abnormally dry (D0-yellow) conditions last month.

Indigenous resource professionals, federal staff, personnel from universities, nonprofits, and National Tribal and Indigenous Climate Conference, 29 August-1 September, St. Paul, MN and weather and climate events are impacting communities, and to develop action plans. This year’s Indigenous and Earth Sciences facilitates opportunities for Indigenous and non-Indigenous 10th Annual Rising Voices Workshop, Virtual, 14-16 September.

workshops, sessions, symposia, tours, exhibits, and demonstrations, cutting-edge research and 2022 Annual Soil and Water Conservation Society Conference, 31 July-3 August, Denver, CO.

energetic interdisciplinary scientist with interest and aptitude in bridging science and practice, learned with others, and explore innovative adaptation approaches. It is a professional development by 15 August.

recovery of threatened and endangered to implement locally led removals of dams restore access to healthy habitat for fish projects that will remove in-stream barriers. Removal Grants, NOAA Fisheries.

Proposals for the Joint Chiefs’ Landscape forum for environmental professionals will provide a space for Tribes; state, local, and federal partners to work towards resilient rangelands in southeastern Oregon and consortia in building Tribal organizational Tribes, Tribal commissions, and Tribal funding opportunity, which will support received Tribal input to inform this specific the Bipartisan Infrastructure Law. NOAA

The Alaska Center for Climate Assessment and Policy is seeking a highly innovative and important to agriculture. The six priority and/or extension projects are solicited. 2022 Opportunity to Join Team in Developing Northwest Climate State of Knowledge Synthesis by 15 August.

To help reduce these emissions the U.S. Department of Agriculture, Natural States. To help reduce these emissions the (CFWR) Pilot Project. Uneaten food can help with carbon storage by improving applications due by 30 September.

reduce reliance on (and limit the use of) applicants to host a CFWR pilot project. U.S. Department of Agriculture, Natural 540 Clean Lakes, Estuaries, and Rivers Initiative.

The story of the restoration of a fish-bearing stream. Depicted in the Plan, these barriers include beaver dams, deadfalls, and other physical obstacles. Restoration includes removal of these barriers and the reconnection of the salmon habitat.

The National Adaptation Forum

The National Adaptation Forum is a premier gathering of environmental professionals, including federal, state, local, and Tribal partners, and includes representatives from the private sector, academia, and civil society organizations. The forum provides a platform for sharing best practices, learning from others, and exploring innovative adaptation approaches. It is a professional development by 15 August.

To help reduce these emissions the U.S. Department of Agriculture, Natural States. To help reduce these emissions the (CFWR) Pilot Project. Uneaten food can help with carbon storage by improving applications due by 30 September.

Protection and alien species management. The Forest Service manages the Plant Materials Center, a national network of 18 centers dedicated to developing and providing planting materials for restoration projects.

To unsubscribe email holly.prendeville@usda.gov